

Dear Parents and Carers

SHIRE OAK

C of E (VC) Primary School

It was lovely to see so many of you at Stay and Play this morning. It was also great to catch up with so many current and former parents at our Winter Festival of Fire on Wednesday after school. Despite the slight drizzle there was a good turn out and it was lovely to see families enjoying the craft activities, lantern-making, marshmallow toasting, sweet treats, sparklers, child-run friendship bracelet RSPB fundraiser, the spiritual space and just hanging out and singing by the fire. The hot food and drinks on offer definitely helped stave off the cold and there was also a chance to stock up on new-to-you uniform, knitted ornaments and raffle tickets thanks to FOSOPS. It has been great to see so many current and former parents getting involved in Friends of Shire Oak Primary School (our PTA) – it really helps us with both fundraising and being able to offer the extra events like discos that the children ask for. Thank you to FOSOPS and to so many of our school staff for putting on this great annual event.

Five of our oldest school councillors represented the school at a very special event on Monday. Wheatfields Hospice had been gifted one of the 'Tree of Trees' from the special jubilee sculpture and had a planting ceremony and fancy brunch to celebrate with many local dignitaries. One of our children said, "It felt very exciting to be invited to such an important event. We felt very important meeting the mayor, the Vice Lord Lieutenant and High Sheriff; everyone was very nice to us! I loved seeing the special tree and would like to know what species it is." (<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/63114711> to find out more about the sculpture and the national jubilee project.)

Today is the last day of our Anti Bullying Fortnight which coincides with the national Anti-Bullying Week and children in KS2 have a special workshop with a visiting actor to explore the issue. Each year we make sure children know:

What bullying is What bullying is not What to do about bullying... TELL!

All the children (and adults) who agree with this sign our Anti Bullying Charter and receive a special present chosen by School Council to help remember the message. The theme this year is reach out and so they had a good time investigating the cost of gloves, rings, hand decorations and in the end settled on designing wristbands with the message on. (They were keen to avoid plastic, but felt this wasn't a throw away item so they could make an exception!) Whenever we learn about bullying in school we receive a lot more notes in the worry boxes and it may well be the case that you hear more worries at home too. Like you, we investigate each one, but we find that as children learn the vocabulary and dynamics of bullying they can over-apply the term to begin with. At school we say bullying is deliberately hurting someone (not just physically), again and again, on purpose to make someone feel bad. There are other behaviours that are not ok, but are not bullying. As well as getting used to the language we find that children want to check out that the systems in place do work, which can be a reason for increased notes in the Worry Box and more such conversations at home too.

Online (or cyber) bullying is more and more of a risk as the children get older and so being kind, being safe and being your best when using the Internet is an important part of our protective work in school. We are always happy to invite the charity d:side into school to hold special Internet Safety lessons with each class which will be revisited around Internet Safety Day in February too. Unfortunately, illness prevented the facilitator from seeing every class, but we will catch that up soon.

As Advent approaches we are inviting you this year to take part in a Reverse Advent Calendar to support the Baby Basics charity. Baby Basics provides much needed essentials and equipment to mothers and families who are unable to provide these items for themselves; including (but not limited to) teenage mums, people seeking asylum and women fleeing domestic abuse and trafficking. Working with midwives, health visitors and other professional groups to provide support directly where it is most needed, Baby Basics volunteers lovingly collect, sort and package a 'Moses Basket' of clothing, toiletries and essential baby equipment as an attractive gift to new mothers. What an appropriate cause to support at Christmas! Children can help choose a book they have outgrown to bring in or choose a pack of nappies when at the supermarket with you. Attached to this newsletter is a list of new and second-hand requested items. There will be a basket in the foyer for anything you can donate. Thank you.

Class	Well done to these Superstars who have been chosen by staff who work with them. Many were linked this week to the REACH OUT theme. Year 6 monitors write down the comments on certificates as they are given out.
YR (Thames)	Gemma is always kind. Connie will always include others in her play.
Y1 (Nile)	Jacob W is kind and a good friend. Mara is always, positive, cheerful and kind to others.
Y2 (Aruvi Aru)	Nicolas reaches out to others and is quick to help when they need it. Annabel is kind to others and always speaks up on the playground to make sure people are happy.
Y3 (Rhine)	Stan always shows kindness, patience and understanding 'reaching out' to those who seem sad or need help. Mali is always kind and encouraging to others 'reaching out' to those who seem sad or need help.
Y4 (Ganges)	Evie is a good role model to the class. She is kind, caring and sensitive and always looks out for those around her. Kaiyo has a positive attitude to his learning and always has a lot of good ideas and thoughts to share with the class.
Y5 (Tigris)	Seth has a mature and caring approaching to his friendships. Bethan acts in a caring and responsible way towards her friends.
Y6 (Amazon)	All of Year 6 as they have been good role models and worked well with different adults through a tricky start to the half term.
Citizen of the Week , nominated by Odysseus was Joseph for making friends so quickly despite being new to our school. Well done.

Have a great weekend!
